
PROGRESSIVE IDEAS TO SUPPORT PEOPLE LIVING WITH AUTISM

In this seminar you will learn:

- Cutting-edge approaches for autism supports
- Ideas for starting up social enterprise opportunities
- Development of local and international partnerships
- Innovative long-term care options for an aging population

Dawn Allen has been the Chief Executive Officer of GHA Autism Supports in North Carolina since 1984. Her organization's cutting-edge approach has drawn visitors from places such as Japan, Denmark, Germany, and other countries. These visitors come to learn new ideas to support persons with autism in their own countries. Dawn is progressive in planning for the future needs of persons served, as exemplified by the development of residential and community integration opportunities.
