

FAMILY RESOURCE CAFE

ARE YOU TAKING ADVANTAGE OF ALL
THE RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO YOU?
Discover what RDSPs can do for you

An informative and informal discussion about Registered Disability Savings Plans (RDSPs). In collaboration with:

Tuesday, October 25th, 7:00 pm

Garth Homer Society Auditorium, 813 Darwin Road

For reserving a seat, please contact Helena Prins at hprins@garthhomersociety.org or at 778-265 9326 by October 21st, 2016

GUEST SPEAKER:

JESSICA HUMPHREY lives in Victoria, BC with her husband and 2 children aged 13 and 15. Her eldest child has a label of a developmental disability. Jessica works as the Self Advocate Advisor for Community Living BC where she finds ways for the voice and experience of individuals who are labelled to always be included in the work of CLBC, as well as in other parts of community. She recognizes and respects both individual and collective self advocacy leadership in BC and works to connect people to new ideas that honour diversity and lifelong inclusion.

Refreshments and onsite respite provided with advance notice. Sign language interpreting provided.

HOSTED BY:

JASON HOLMES

Life and Health Insurance Advisor
Investment Fund Advisor*

200 - 1770 Fort Street, Victoria, BC V8R 1J5
Phone: 250-708-3376 ext. 228
Cell: 250-516-4195 | Fax: 250-708-3339
jason.holmes@dfsinc.ca
www.dfsinc.ca/JasonHolmes

Jason comes to the table with an In depth understanding of how the Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) can change lives and enthusiastically promotes the plan as a key component in helping people with disabilities and their families save money for the future.

* Registered trademark owned by Desjardins Financial Security Life Assurance Company